

THE DOG TRAINING

ACADEMY

The pet parent (you) certifies that the pet is in good health and has no medical issues that would interfere with training. If there is a medical issue the pet parent will alert the pet trainer of said issue before the training starts. If a health issue arises of any kind once training has started the pet parent agrees to take the pet to the veterinarian and training will start again once the pet is capable. The Dog Training Academy is not at fault for any health issues that may arise before/during/after all training lessons take place.

The pet parent agrees to be compliant in requests from the pet trainer. This includes but is not limited to: No aversive tools will be used at any time including but not limited to shock/vibration/citronella/ultrasonic collars, prong collars, choke chains and retractable leashes, daily routine changes, environmental changes, and more. The pet parent understands that receiving training does not guarantee that the pet will not cause harm or loss, intentional or unintentional, to any property, animal or person. If the pet bites a person/animal, The Dog Training Academy may be required to report the bite to the appropriate authorities by law. The Dog Training Academy and its contractors, staff, associates, trainers, reserve the right to stop service at any time for any reason.

The pet parent understands that any damages done to property of any kind, people, the pet being trained and/or other animals during the training process is not the fault of The Dog Training Academy whether present or not. The pet parent agrees to take all precautions necessary when The Dog Training Academy is not present to make sure accidents do not happen. The pet parent is responsible for the damages done of any kind and agrees to pay for all damages including harm done to the pet trainer. The Dog Training Academy is not responsible if you/your pet/your property is harmed and/or damaged during the training lessons. The pet parent in signing this form removes The Dog Training Academy from all liability from any of the above-mentioned incidents.

Payment is due upon booking a Consultation/lesson. Fees are non-refundable. If the pet parent no longer wants to continue the training, they agree to forfeit the remaining lessons and funds if there are any.

These terms and conditions do not expire.
